

September 14-25, 2026
Flight Included

LONDON, UK & SCOTLAND

Enjoy an amazing tour through the UK countryside and the amazing Scottish highlands.

Monday, Sept 14th

Overnight Flight to London From Nashville (Or local Airport)

Tuesday, Sept 15th

London

Touch down in London! Most flights will be overnight, so grab a strong coffee and dive into exploring this vibrant city before hotel check-in. Wander through the vibrant streets of Covent Garden, snap a pic at the iconic Big Ben, or fuel up with a traditional English breakfast. After resting up, cap off the evening with a welcome dinner where you'll spend time with your traveling companions!

Wednesday, Sept 16th

London

This morning, start with a panoramic city tour, exploring vibrant streets and iconic landmarks while enjoying insightful commentary on the city's rich history and culture. After your morning tour, enjoy the rest of the day at leisure. Stroll through neighborhoods, visit shops, or savor local cuisine at cafes. In the evening, soak in the atmosphere—attend a performance, relax at a pub, or enjoy the ambience. Tailor your experience to your interests.

Thursday, Sept 17th

York, UK

Travel comfortably by train to the historic city of York, known for its rich heritage and charming medieval streets. Upon arrival, take a leisurely walk to the majestic York Minster, one of the largest and most stunning Gothic cathedrals in Europe. Enjoy time to explore this architectural masterpiece before settling into your hotel. As the evening sets in, experience the warmth of a traditional pub dinner, savoring local flavors in a cozy, authentic atmosphere.

Friday, Sept 18th

York, UK

Enjoy a day to explore York at your leisure. Walk the medieval city walls, visit the stunning York Minster, and browse the charming shops of The Shambles. Discover local history at the Jorvik Viking Centre or National Railway Museum, or unwind with a river cruise or a stroll through the Museum Gardens. Perfect for sightseeing, shopping, or relaxing.

Saturday, Sept 19th

Travel from York, UK to Glasgow Scotland

Depart for the scenic Lake District, a region of rolling hills, sparkling lakes, and poetic charm. Stop to explore the quaint village of Grasmere, known for its literary history and breathtaking landscapes. In the afternoon, continue your journey north to Glasgow, Scotland's vibrant cultural hub, where you'll settle in for a one-night stay surrounded by striking architecture and lively city energy.

Sunday, Sept 20th

Scottish Highlands

Begin your journey through the breathtaking Scottish Highlands, heading toward the picturesque town of Fort William, nestled at the foot of Ben Nevis. Enjoy time to explore and grab lunch before visiting a whisky distillery**, where you'll discover the art of traditional whisky-making. Continue through scenic landscapes and arrive in Inverness, the capital of the Highlands, for a relaxing evening and overnight stay.

Monday, Sept 21st

Loch Ness

Begin your day with a morning boat tour on the mystical Loch Ness, soaking up breathtaking Highland scenery and searching for the elusive Nessie. Explore the atmospheric ruins of Urquhart Castle, perched dramatically on the loch's edge with sweeping views. Then enjoy a free afternoon in Inverness—wander its charming streets, discover cozy cafes, browse unique shops, or simply soak in the warm Highland hospitality at your own pace.

Tuesday, Sept 22nd

Pitlochry, Scotland

Depart for a scenic drive through the Highlands. Stop at an iconic sheep farm to see sheepdogs in action. Then have some lunch on your own upon arriving in the charming town of Pitlochry, known for its Victorian architecture, cozy shops, and beautiful surroundings. **Visit a distillery before checking in to your hotel and enjoying a group dinner.

Wednesday, Sept 23rd

St. Andrews

Spend the morning in Dundee before continuing to the historic seaside town of St Andrews for a short stop, the birthplace of golf and home to a prestigious university and dramatic coastal views. Conclude the day with your arrival in Edinburgh, Scotland's captivating capital, where medieval charm meets modern elegance.

Thursday, Sept 24th

Edinburgh, Scotland

This morning, start with a panoramic city tour with a local guide, including admission into Edinburgh Castle. After your morning tour, enjoy the rest of the day at leisure, soak in Edinburgh's unique charm—visit one of the magnificent museums, unwind with a dram of whisky in a cozy Old Town pub, or simply wander the cobbled streets lit by historic lamplight. This evening, gather with your travel mates to enjoy a farewell dinner at a traditional Scottish Night.

Friday, Sept 25th

Travel Home

Cost: Double Occupancy $5,500.00
Single Occupancy add $500.00 to Double Occupancy
Cost includes airfare
$750.00 Deposit required